

YOUR Opinion Counts

SF Police Credit Union would like to hear your opinions at an upcoming focus group!

SFPCU is a well established, reputable credit union in California with over 60 years of proudly serving law enforcement and their families. We'd like to discover what is important to you when choosing a financial institution.

To do this we will be holding two focus groups at the Vallejo POA Building

But we need participants. We are looking for people in law enforcement (active or retired) or immediate family members of someone in law enforcement, 21 and over. You must be willing to be video-recorded.

Confidentiality is assured

Please be assured that your participation will be held in the strictest confidence. No identifying information will be used in the findings. Recordings will be strictly used for feedback and reporting, and are confidential.
